Patty Beckman, SUSD governing board member was available to answer and address member questions during post-presentation discussion.

She expressed the district's desire to help all of our children and encouraged families to reach out if they need anything. She reassured us that the district is also preparing for all possibilities for the Fall. She added that she would be happy to communicate common parent questions/concerns and the district's responses to SPC so that helpful information is made available to parents throughout the SUSD community.
